Community Board Is Busy With Several Housing Projects

PAUL RUDEMILLER, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The community board development corporation has been developing housing and apartment unit since 1975. The Bopard has also been fighting foreclosures. In Hamilton County alone, there are hundreds of foreclosures a week. This is a state and national problem.

An update on recent Board housing efforts:

■Partnering with summer work campers through Washington United Church of Christ to clean out buildings.

■3084 Henshaw isx being renovated. 1232 Bates has been purchased and will be rented in July.

■3082 Henshaw being renovated for sale.

■3072 Sidney being remonvated for sale.

If you are interesting in renovating and owning one of our homes, please call Paul at 542-1637.

"Little Garden" Project Provides Free Flowers to Residents

DAVID JUSTICE, CHAIR, ENVIRONMENTAL SAFETY COMMITTEE

The Camp Washington Community Council has been awarded a Merit Grant through the City's NSP.

The Little Garden project is based on the Shrebergarten public gardening program initiated in the early 1900's in Berlin. A psychiatrist named Shreber knew that green space helps people feel good so he created flower and vegetable gardens on public plots. It is hoped that we can further green up Camp Washington by having residents plant flowers. Funds will be used to buy flowers and flower pots for those residents that want to spiff up their yards. Residents Mimi Rook and Sarah Hayes will coordinate the program.

Call Mimi at 328-8576 or Sarah at 281-3774.

Sept. 13th Bluegrass & Art Fest

JOSEPH GORMAN, COMMUNITY ORGANIZER

The 2nd annual Camp Washington Bluegrass & Art Fest will feature Vernon McIntyre's Appalachian Grass as headliner. The Mt. Pleasant String Band returns. A new band called Pine Mountain Highway rounds out the show. The art fest is being coordinated by Dicere Gallery.

Call Joe at 542-1637 for more information.
